2 To conduct surveillance

post accreditation evaluation to foster a quality culture in the Study Program.

3 To assess and provide recommendations for the establishment of new health study programs using the minimum requirement compliance instrument.

4 To develop study program accreditation instruments

The accreditation instrument prepared by IAAHEH is unique for each scientific field. The instrument drafting team comes from elements of professional organizations, associations of higher education institutions for health, accreditation experts and

5 Accreditation Clinic for Health Study Program

An accreditation clinic is a training conducted by IAAHEH for study programs. This activity is carried out regularly to improve the quality of the study program continuously.

6 Accreditation Assessment Team Training

To improve the competency of the Assessment Team, IAAHEH regularly conducts various trainings for assessors and validators. The Assessment Team Training is unique for each field of health science.

1. IAAHEH, the only independent accreditation institution in the health sciences that has a mandate from the Government to accredit health science study programs covering vocational, academic and professional education. (Minister of Education and Culture Decree No. 291 / p / 2014 of 2014 concerning the Recognition of the Establishment of an Independent Accreditation Institution for Higher Education in Indonesian Health) and conducting guidance on the quality of education for the Study Program (Permendikbud No. 05/2020)
2. The purpose of IAAHEH accreditation is not only to provide the status and rank of study program accreditation, but mainly to raise awareness, motivation, and concrete steps that ultimately lead to a culture of continuous quality improvement. Therefore, IAAHEH provides guidance and monitoring of academic quality after accreditation
3. The accreditation assessment instrument is unique for each health study program, currently there are 137 accreditation instruments available.
